

HAZWOPER training approach

Julián Arévalo

Emergency Management Advisor

Bakersfield, February, 2016

---

human energy®

HAZWOPER at Chevron

General training

- Facility specific orientation
- H2S awareness
- Safety Data Sheets
- Incident Command System
- Field or facility specific Tactical Response Plans

HAZWOPER

Emergency Response training

- FRA – In house - general training
- FRO - In house
- HMT - Field Business Partners and External resources
- HMS - Corporate resources
- IC/OC – In house

HAZWOPER

Hazardous Waste Operations training

- Use of third parties that either work on site on a regular basis or are called as needed to provide clean up specialized companies.
- HAZWOPER Waste Operations training required to perform work

HAZWOPER Resources

- Hazardous Materials Business Plan. Maintained electronically and linked to Google Earth.
- Product acceptance process before introducing new chemicals.
- Safety Data Sheet portal for quick employee access.
- SJVBU HAZWOPER Policy
- Incident Management Teams pre assigned for each field.
- Response teams for H2S releases on each field.
- HAZWOPER Computer Based Training modules.

